

Support Meetings

July, August, & September 2018

July 18, 2018

*Artist Workshop
-Self Portrait*

Join PFLAG Kona/Big Island at the Friends of the Children of West Hawaii office at 74-5566 Luhia Street, Suite E4 for peer support from 6:00 to 6:30, followed by an artists workshop and journey of personal discovery led by artist, PFLAG Kona/Big Island President, and Friends of the Children of West Hawaii Executive Director, Jefferson Gourley discovering ourselves through the creation of our own personal self portraits.

August 15, 2018

LGBT In School

Join PFLAG Kona/Big Island at the Friends of the Children of West Hawaii office at 74-5566 Luhia Street, Suite E4 for peer support from 6:00 to 6:30, followed by a panel discussion featuring Department of Education administrators, counselors, and educators discussing your concerns regarding students who are members of the LGBT community, DOE policies, and student safety in school.

September 19, 2018

A Place In The Middle

Join PFLAG Kona/Big Island at the Friends of the Children of West Hawaii office at 74-5566 Luhia Street, Suite E4 for peer support from 6:00 to 6:30, followed by a showing of the short film "A Place In The Middle" a documentary on the cultural significance and acceptance of transgender individuals by the Native Hawaiian culture and the process of educating a community through culture and compassion by one Kumu Hula and her Halau on Oahu.

For more information on PFLAG Kona/Big Island, our monthly support meetings, and other services and support offered by PFLAG, please visit www.pflagkonabigisland.org or email pflagkonabigisland@gmail.com.